What are the risks associated with the product and what can I get in exchange?

The risk indicator assumes that you will hold the product for 5 years.

The aggregate risk ratio indicates the level of the risks associated with the Fund in comparison with other products. It shows the probability of the Fund generating a financial loss as a consequence of market movements or because OTP Fund Management Ltd. cannot make payments due to insolvency. A detailed explanation of the risks associated with the Fund is included in Section 26 of the Fund Management Policy. The actual risk may change significantly if you sell the Fund Units before the end of the recommended investment period, and you may well receive a smaller amount than expected. The Fund is classified into the 5th category of 7, which corresponds to a medium-high risk category. This category signals a medium-high level of potential losses stemming from future performance. Unfavourable market conditions are likely to affect OTP Fund Management Ltd.'s capability of making payments to you.

The Fund's Fund Units are denominated in a currency other than the official currency of the Member State in which they are offered, thus the return expressed in the official currency of the Member State in which they are offered may differ depending on exchange rate fluctuations. This risk is not factored into the above indicator.

Please note that the past return and performance of the Fund do not guarantee its future performance and return. The risk factor indicated does not necessarily remain the same and may change over time. Not even the lowest-risk investments are altogether risk-free. This product provides no protection from any negative future change in market performance; therefore, investors might lose part or, in extreme cases, the whole of their investments.

The Fund does not have a minimum guaranteed return and you may lose some or all of your investment. The above scenarios show you how your investment may perform. This is what you can compare with other products' scenarios. The scenarios presented above are estimates of the expected future performance of your investment based on past events; they are not precise indicators. The amount you will receive in return will depend on the performance of the markets and the length of the holding period. The stress scenario shows the amount you might receive in extreme market circumstances without factoring in the possibility of the issuer's inability to pay. The adverse, moderate and favourable scenarios presented are illustrations using the Fund's worst, average and best performance over the past 10 years. The future evolution of markets could be very different. The above figures include all of the product's own costs, but they do not include those you pay to your advisor or distributor. The above figures also do not take into account your personal taxation circumstances, which may also affect the amount you receive.

What if OTP Fund Management cannot pay you?

In the event of the insolvency of the Fund Manager, the Investor will not suffer any financial loss, as the amount invested, i.e. the assets managed in the Fund, is managed separately by the Depositary of the Fund. The Fund is an independent legal entity and is not liable in the event of non-performance by the Fund Manager or any service provider (e.g. Depositary, Distributor).

However, if the Investor Protection Fund (BEVA) is unable to deliver the Investor's Investment Unit or other assets (securities, money) registered in the name of the Investor, the service provider contracted with the Investor will be liable to indemnify the Investor. If the Depositary or the financial partner, as a member of BEVA, is unable to meet its obligations and the Investor does not have access to the deposited financial instruments, BEVA may cover the Investor's loss. BEVA will pay compensation up to a maximum of EUR 100,000 per person and per BEVA member combined. Further details on the BEVA investor protection guarantee scheme are available on the <https://bva.hu/hu> website. However, the insurance provided by BEVA does not cover any losses resulting from the Fund's market performance.

Costs to be incurred

The person advising you on or selling you the product may also charge other costs. In this case, they inform you about such costs, and how they impact your investment.

The reduction in yield (RIY) shows the impact of the total cost you will pay on the yield you may earn. The total cost includes one-off, ongoing and incidental costs alike.

The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, calculated for two different holding periods. They also include any sanctions for early exit. The figures are based on an assumed investment of EUR 10,000. The figures are estimated on the basis of the moderate performance scenario and may change over time.

Changes in costs over time

The table shows the amounts that are used from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well it performs. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an investment example and different possible investment periods. We have assumed that you will get back the amount invested in the first year (0% annual return). For the rest of the holding periods, the assumption is that the product performs according to the moderate scenario and EUR 10,000 was invested.
