Consolidated NIM picked up by 65 bps y-o-y driven mostly by the bounce-back in Hungary and the improvement in EUR-linked countries

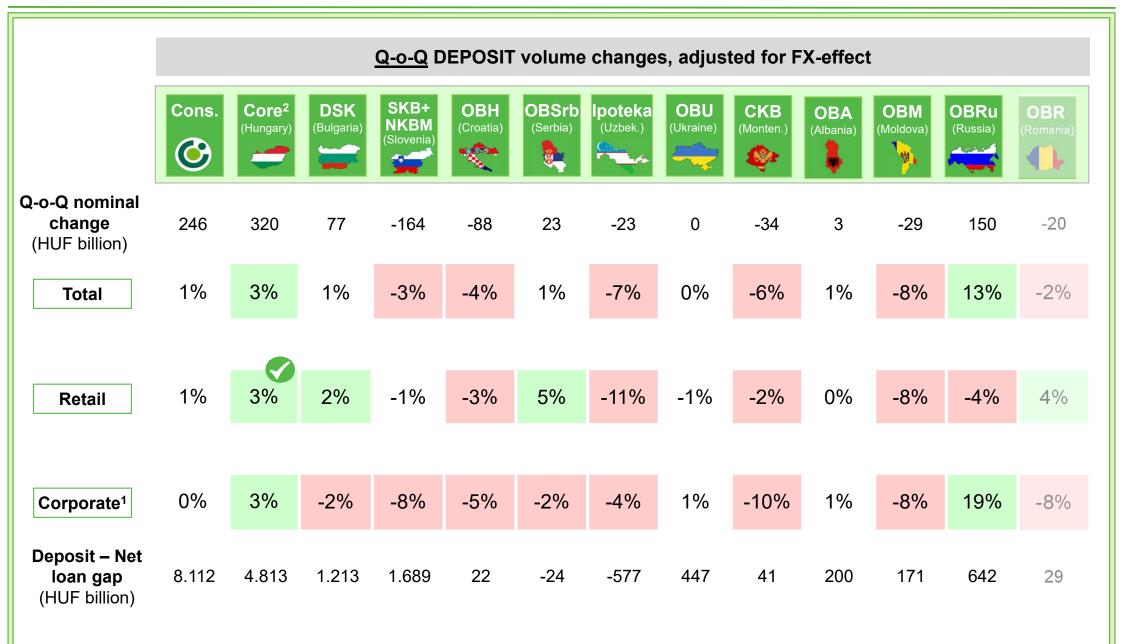

Consolidated performing loan volumes grew by 2% q-o-q without Romania, to a great extent driven by the strong performance in Bulgaria and Croatia. In Hungary mortgage loan growth accelerated and corporate exposures stabilized

¹ Loans to MSE and corporate clients. ² In the Leasing row the leasing volume change applies to Merkantil Group (Hungarian leasing). ³ Changes without Romania.

Consolidated deposits grew by 1% q-o-q due to the Hungarian household deposits turning into growth mode from 4Q 2023, expanding by 3% q-o-q in the first quarter

¹ Including MSE, MLE and municipality deposits.

² Including retail bonds.

The 14% y-o-y FX-adjusted growth in net fees was driven mainly by the Hungarian operation, OTP Core and Fund Management. The quarterly drop was mostly seasonal and one-off driven

¹⁾ At OTP Core the 11% y-o-y fee growth was broad-based, lendingrelated fee income also started to pick up. Fees dropped by 7% q-o-q (by HUF 3.7 billion), mainly because the balance of one-off items deteriorated by HUF 4.6 billion q-o-q. One-offs amounted to -HUF 2.9 billion in 1Q, o/w the financial transaction tax for bank card transactions booked in a lump sum was -HUF 2 billion, and the full-year payment to the Compensation Fund hit -HUF 0.9 billion. One-offs amounted to +HUF 1.7 billion in 4Q 2023.

2) 5% q-o-q drop in Slovenia was due to seasonally weaker business activity.

3) In Russia net fees grew 37% y-o-y in RUB terms, mostly driven by account maintenance and transaction fees. The q-o-q drop was mostly the result of consumer loan disbursement falling by 17% q-o-q owing to product seasonality and further tightening of the payment-to-income ratio regulation from 1 January. Additionally, lower transaction volumes at the beginning of the year played a role, too.

⁴⁾ At OTP Fund Management the y-o-y growth was driven by soaring assets under management. The q-o-q decline was due to HUF 5.2 billion success fee recognized in 4Q 2023.

¹ At OTP Core the 4% y-o-y growth was driven by:

- 6% increase in personnel expenses;
- 15% increase in depreciation stemming from higher software depreciation, owing partly to the ongoing replacement of the Core Banking System;
- Other expenses dropped by 2% y-o-y, largely because, in accordance with the funds approaching the target level required by the National Deposit Insurance Fund, the deposit insurance fees declined starting from the fourth quarter of 2023 (-HUF 3 billion y-o-y; this was partly offset by the rise in consultancy and IT costs.

²The newly acquired Albanian bank's P&L was consolidated from August 2022, and the integration process was completed by December 2023, allowing synergies to be extracted, which, together with the drop out of integration costs occurred in 1Q 2023, ultimately reflected in 13% y-o-y underlying cost savings.

³⁾ The Russian cost increase was due to wage inflation, while the average headcount declined by 5% y-o-y.

- The consolidated net interest margin may be similar to 2023.
- The consolidated cost-to-income ratio may be around 45%.
- Portfolio risk profile may be similar to 2023.
- Leverage is expected to decline, therefore ROE may be lower than in 2023.

On 26 April 2024 the Annual General Meeting approved HUF 150 billion dividend payments.

On 12 February 2024 the National Bank of Hungary approved the buyback of HUF 60 billion equivalent of own shares until 31 December 2024.

For the rest of the year the Bank may issue one or two MREL-eligible Senior Preferred or Senior Non-Preferred bonds with benchmark size.
