CKB – Bank of the year 2021 in Montenegro

Crnogorska Komercijalna Banka (CKB) has won The Banker magazine's "Bank of the year in Montenegro" award in 2021. The prestigious recognition highlights the bank's ability to register robust growth figures despite the economic slowdown.

"Our results have been continuously recognized beyond the borders of Montenegro, thus confirming that the leading position of CKB comes not only from the fact that we are the largest bank in the market, but also from a dedicated and responsible approach towards both our employees and customers. This approach has not only brought us results in terms of revenues, but also made us a strategic partner of the state, businesses and banking sector in the process of creating sustainable and quality business models and practices. Behind this, there is a professional and dedicated effort of the employees thanks to whom we are the proud winner of the The Banker award", said Tamás Kamarási, Chief Executive Officer of CKB.
