- (5) The list of current member banks of the OTP Bank Group is available on the following link, in the "Külföldi csoporttagok" (Foreign group members) section:
<https://www.otpbank.hu/portal/hu/Rolunk/OTPCsoport>
- (6) Orders submitted using the OTPdirekt service.
- (7) Or its equivalent in other foreign currency
- (8) In respect of other cash desk services, the public announcement on "Fee items for the distribution of banknotes and coins" shall prevail.
- (9) OTP Bank Plc. conducts domestic HUF letter of credit transactions with a transactional value of over HUF 500,000, charging the fees specified in points 8.2 and 8.4.
- (10) In addition to the fees, if risk is assumed by the Bank, a risk assumption fee depending on the client's rating is charged. The specific amount of the guarantee fee shall be determined on a case by case basis, depending on the rating of the transaction and the Client.
- (11) The Bank applies an individual exchange rate to intra-bank payment transactions over EUR 50,000. The individual exchange rate is applied by the Bank only to transactions initiated in the bank branch.
- (12) For international payments exceeding the value limit of EUR 50,000 and charged against a HUF account, the Bank shall apply an individual exchange rate.
- (13) The fee is determined for one year in advance, on the basis of the account turnover at OTP Bank Plc.
- (14) When initiating foreign currency transfers, OTP Bank Plc. blocks an additional 0.5% above the basic sum and commission of the transaction, in order to cover any potential exchange rate risk, if the currency of the account and the transaction differ. In case of SEPA transfers (point I.3.3.d.) or transfers within the bank group (point I.3.3.e.), during cover verification, the commission for standard transfers (point I.3.3.a.) is blocked in addition to the amount to be transferred; lacking this, the transaction may not be initiated. Actually, the fee specified for SEPA transfers (point I.3.3.d.) or for transfers within the bank group (point I.3.3.e.) is charged.
- (15) Orders initiated to the credit of a client of a SEPA-member bank, in EUR currency, containing the beneficiary's IBAN and the SWIFT BIC of their bank, without designating the allocation of foreign banking costs. If the bank of the beneficiary is not available in the SEPA system, if possible, up to EUR 50,000 amount the transaction is performed in the EBA STEP2 system, along with charging an identical fee. If this is not possible, the transaction is performed by us as standard transfer, along with charging the general fee items. - (16) Deleted.
- (17) HUF and foreign currency payment accounts already existing or to be opened can be included in the ELECTRA service package. Usage of the OTPdirekt Electra terminal software and provision of authentic electronic bank account statement is included free of charge in this package. Furthermore, any other (non payment nature) HUF or foreign currency bank account already existing or to be newly opened may be included in the scope of accounts, subject to the account keeping fee applicable to bank accounts not included in any service package, as set out in the public announcement at any time.
- (18) Deleted.
- (19) Pursuant to the provisions of Act CXVI of 2012, "transfers between own accounts" shall mean such intra-bank transfers where the account owner initiating the transfer is identical with the account owner receiving it. Such transfer include transfers between the Account Owner's sole trader bank account and private retail bank account (including retail bank accounts with multiple owners where one of the account owners is the sole trader). Transfer to a credit account does not qualify as transfer between own accounts. For transfers to the home pre-savings account of the Account Owner kept at OTP Lakástakarék Zrt., the fee for intra-bank transactions between own accounts is applied (along with charging the turnover special fee on both cases).
- (20) Deleted.
- (21) The detailed terms and conditions of the transaction for providing card coverage are contained in the Debit Card Terms of Business, the Commercial Banking OTPdirekt General Business Regulations, as well as the Public Announcement on the OTPdirekt services provided for commercial banking clients.
- (22) The detailed terms and conditions for instant cash deposits through ATMs—to the card account related to the card used to deposit or to another account—are contained in the Debit Card Business Regulations.
- (23) From 10.03.2017, OTP Bank Plc. does not conclude new agreements for foreign currency Savings Account, as well as for attorney custody deposit account in EUR currency.
- (24) As a result of the amendment of the law, transfers to the Széchenyi Recreational Card accounts kept by OTP Pénztárszolgáltató Zrt. shall qualify as inter-bank transfer instead of intra-bank transfer. In order to reduce the burden on employers, from 6 January 2019 OTP Bank Plc. shall apply the same conditions to ad hoc transfers, standing transfers, ad hoc transfers submitted with a specified debit date and group transfers to Széchenyi Recreational Card accounts kept by OTP Pénztárszolgáltató Zrt., as applicable to items initiated within the bank in a branch or through the OTPdirekt service.
- (25) Charged per case, independent of the number of managed secondary account identifiers. The fee will be effective from 02 March 2020.
- (26) The payment request service is available in accordance with the Commercial Banking OTPdirekt General Business Regulations following publication in the notice entitled PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT on the OTPdirekt services provided for commercial banking clients.
- (27) This announcement shall be applied to HUF and foreign exchange accounts maintained in respect of assets managed under the framework of a fiduciary asset management legal relationship for trust companies subject to Act XV of 2014 on trustees and the rules governing their activities, to HUF and foreign exchange accounts maintained in respect of assets managed under the framework of a fiduciary asset management legal relationship for asset management foundations subject to Act XIII of 2019 on asset management foundations as well as to HUF and foreign exchange accounts maintained in respect of assets managed under the framework of a fiduciary asset management legal relationship for private individuals carrying out fiduciary asset management activity according to Act V of 2013 on the Civil Code.
- (28) The service was reclassified into the range of VAT-exempt services from 1st January 2024.
- (A) The reason for modifying this Public Announcement is the changes of the fees of instant cash deposits through ATM due to the 2024 inflation rate and the extension of certain promotions. Fees for instant cash deposits through ATM, in the Public Announcement, change—according to Paragraph (14) of I. General Provisions of the Debit Card Business Regulations—by the rate of the annual consumer price index disclosed by the Hungarian Central Statistical Office for the previous year (3.7% in 2024).
- (B) Financial institutions as defined in section 3. § (4) e) of Act CXVI of 2012 on financial transaction duty.

Information on the general terms and conditions of the performance of the international HUF and foreign currency, as well as domestic foreign currency payments

- The above published commissions apply to routine transactions only. Commissions on special transactions are subject to separate agreements.
- The commission is charged in the currency of the account keeping, based on the foreign currency amount of the order, simultaneously with performing the service, based on the effective foreign exchange rate quoted by OTP Bank Plc.
- In addition to the own commissions published, the foreign bank commissions as well as extra costs (courier service, DHL, TNT, etc.) are recharged to the clients.
- Letters of credits and prompt collections are undertaken by the bank based on The Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits, as well as The Uniform Rules for Collections issued by the International Chamber of Commerce respectively, even if they are not stipulated by the party giving the order.
- Imprecise and/or incomplete orders are kept on hold by the bank at the liability of the party giving the order until the details required for execution are duly provided.
- Costs of transfers which could not be executed and were returned by foreign banks are to be borne by the ordering party at all times.
- Orders – either paper-based or electronically initiated – which are submitted by 14:00 on a certain day are considered by OTP Bank Plc. to be arrived on that certain day. Orders submitted after this point of time are considered to be submitted on the next banking day.
- Transfers within the European Economic Area (EEA) (The European Economic Area consists of the Member States of the EU as well as Norway, Liechtenstein and Iceland. The currencies of the EEA member states listed by our bank are as follows: HUF (Hungarian forint), EUR (euro), BGN (Bulgarian lev), CZK (Czech koruna), DKK (Danish krone), CHF (Swiss franc - Liechtenstein), NOK (Norwegian krone), PLN (Polish zloty), RON (Romanian leu), SEK (Swedish krona), GBP (British pound). Orders are credited to the beneficiary client's account latest on the 4th day for orders initiated in a paper-based format, and latest on the 3rd day for orders initiated electronically. For transfers to other destinations outside the EEA, crediting to the beneficiary's account varies according to the processing rules applicable in the destination country, thus in this regard our bank is unable to make any commitments.
- Priority orders are posted for execution by OTP Bank Plc. with a value date being the first day following the current day.
- Euró Expressz orders are posted by OTP Bank Plc. for execution on the current day.
- Clients shall be required to give notice of priority transfers in excess of 1 million in either USD, EUR, CHF or GBP currency on the day preceding the initiation of the transfer. The International Banking Operations General Department shall be informed of the notice.
- Express transfer to OTP bank groups means that the beneficiary client account shall be credited within the same day.

13. The Bank applies an individual exchange rate to intra-bank payment transactions over the value of EUR 50,000. The individual exchange rate is applied by the Bank only to transactions initiated in the bank branch. For international payments exceeding the value limit of EUR 50,000 and charged against a HUF account, the Bank shall apply an individual exchange rate.
14. Upon acceptance of foreign currency transfer orders, blocking of funds occurs at the foreign currency selling rate listed by OTP Bank Plc. and effective on the date of acceptance, along with the exchange rate risk premium and commission.
15. Debiting to the client account takes place on the execution date, in case of transactions settled by conversion to the debit of foreign currency account at the exchange rate valid at the time of settlement, in case of transactions settled to the debit of forint account the following rules for the application of exchange rate shall apply:
 - in the case of orders submitted by electronic channels before the intra day cut-off time for the submission of orders, at the foreign currency exchange selling rate valid at the time of submission of the order,
 - in the case of orders submitted after such cut-off time or on paper to be settled on the following business day, at the foreign currency exchange selling rate first quoted on the day of execution,
 - in the event of an execution schedule other than this for any reason, settlement shall take place at the latest exchange rate valid at the time of execution of the transaction.
16. The exchange rate listed first on the processing day is applied to settlements related to documentary payments and transfers which require subsequent consultation.
17. OTP Bank Plc. shall only accept and execute orders which are compliant with its business policy.
